Ministry Overview

Power to Change (P2C) is an organization that seeks to collectively as well as individually, spread the gospel of Jesus Christ through movements of evangelism and discipleship. No matter what type of work those involved with P2C do, whether they are staff or volunteers, we understand that our work collectively is to further this overall mission. In accordance with our mission statement to spread the gospel, everyone who applies to be involved will be required to sign and adhere to the Statement of Faith and Code of Conduct.

Athletes in Action (AIA) are a ministry uniquely designed to reach the sports-minded-both professional athletes and professional and the professional fans! Working at the amateur, varsity and professional levels, we encourage players and coaches to use the platform of sports to share the message of God's love.

Position Overview

The Community Coach Ambassador will invest in a local soccer community through building relationships with clubs, churches and the general soccer public. Ultimately, the Ambassador, needs to be able to have a vision and capacity to use soccer as a way to encourage athletes in their walk and multiply their faith. They must be able to see this position as one that serves locally, to build globally. The Ambassador will initiate, mobilize, step out, and be entrepreneurial in building from the ground up. They will have overlap with and ensure the development of current ministry strategies (Church Partnership Camps, International Tours/Project, Cornerstone (AIA ministry strategy that aims at developing local missional communities), and the National Training Camp), recruit and develop new leaders, and help to engage and empower people to use soccer as a tool to reach their local soccer community. By being integrated in the local soccer community, the Ambassador will have a direct connection with the local Cornerstone ministry and it will expect that you will be involved with the Cornerstone ministry model.
